Servair Solutions wins service integration contract for the new low-cost and long-haul airline, French blue

Roissy, 25 May 2016 - Servair Solutions, the facilities management offer from SERVAIR, French market leader and 4th largest company worldwide in airline catering and logistics, continues its collaboration with Groupe Dubreuil, owner of Air Caraïbes, winning the services integration contract for its new low-cost airline, French blue.

Servair Solutions partners with French blue

Servair Solutions has been selected by French blue, the first French low-cost and long-haul airline, to manage its onboard services for a period of 3 years.

Servair Solutions, specialist in managed onboard services, has developed a tailored offer centered around four areas of expertise including engineering, procurement, administration and finance and logistics. Servair Solutions has a presence in about twenty airports and has a global network of 150 suppliers.

Proactive in terms of improvement, development and innovation in line with French blue's qualitative and economic goals, Servair Solutions provides, among other things, management, inventory, catering, on-board equipment and facilities and laundry. It also designs fitting out plans, offers accounting assistance and control and monitoring of suppliers as well as operational and administrative reporting.

French blue's goals

French blue will be opening a route from Paris Orly to Punta Cana with 4 flights a week from 10 September 2016 with a brand new Airbus A330-300, to be delivered on 26 June.

In June 2017, French blue will complement its offer with two new destinations in the Indian Ocean: Reunion and the Mauritius. Two Airbus A350-900s will join the French blue fleet in 2017 and 2018, taking the total to three large aircraft.

SERVAIR is the leading French and African operator in the airline catering and cleaning business. Ranked fourth on a worldwide basis, with its partners and subsidiaries, SERVAIR offers airlines a range of services essential to air transport and passenger comfort at approximately 44 airports around the world. Its requirements in terms of quality and know-how have made Servair a real driving force for its 120 client companies, whose commercial offer to passengers it helps improve, whilst ensuring strict compliance with the requirements of transport protocol.
